

TRUTH, LIES AND ULTIMATE REALITY

An Evening With Richard Rose

Without pretense and without gimmicks, Richard Rose has spent his entire adult life as a Zen teacher and author of several books including The Albigen Papers and The Psychology of the Observer. In this informal, question-and-answer discussion, Rose relates the intimate details of his life-long quest for the truth, and how the intense application of common sense and intuition led him to the cataclysmic spiritual experience that Zen calls satori and the West knows as enlightenment.
