

(3) (k) (cont) for either of us. If you are smart enough to see that friends can say anything whilst steadily maintaining their relationship then something can be done.

There's Every step is contra-ego & that is a synonym for disagreeable, isn't it?

(I got so mad with my teacher I got physically murderous). Ego doesn't relinquish his boss idea without mayhem, squawks, screams, evasions, smarming, - - - At times the student tries to discredit the master, at other times he withdraws...

There is a black leopard on the stairs. You meet him?

What will you do? You can pretend he isn't there,

you can withdraw (run away), you can fight furiously,

you can say "nice pussy", you can try tricks to divert him, you can call for help, - - - many things

But he must eat you.

You will never be attacked, abuse, without reason - - -

In business it is understood that when you say you are a low-down crook" you are being friendly

(if you smile!) & merely mean you are asking too much, but I have to have the goods.

God comes easier if you tell him he has made a mess of things. Try it! He is so grateful that AT LEAST you acknowledge his existence that he comes through with seventh-heaven treatment, ecstasies.

Verb. sap.

(l) Can you "defend"? Why not - IF IT IS NOT DEBATING SOCIETY" or "SOPHIST" tactics. It must be genuine & strictly reasonable. Otherwise there is no hope at all for the FUZZY-MINDED!

(m) There is NO "emotion" in this. Love is "heightened awareness" (& not the variable emotion), & can be hard, but always it is outgoing, thanks not of itself, only of the other person. Our AIM is "heightened awareness" - in fact a Consciousness you have certainly never known & which is amazing...
